11th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Psalter week 3

Her many sins have been forgiven, or she would not have shown such great love.

The Word This Week

The "theme" of the First Reading, Psalm and Gospel today is "forgiveness of sins". We hear the touching Gospel story, of the "woman with a bad name in the town" coming to anoint Jesus's feet. Living inspired by the love of Jesus is the key to our discipleship - his crucifixion is the sign of his love, which is in itself the forgiveness of sins 478 Why can we be confident that our prayer is heard by God?

Many people called on Jesus during his earthly life for healing, and their prayers were answered. Jesus, who rose from the dead, listens to our petitions and brings them to the Father. (2615-2616, 2621)

Even today we know the name of the synagogue official: Jairus was the name of the man who begged Jesus for help, and his prayer was answered. His little daughter was deathly ill. No one could help her, Jesus not only healed his little girl, he even raised her from the dead (Mk 5:21-43). Jesus worked a whole series of well attested cures. He performed signs and miracles, the lame, the lepers, and the blind did not ask Jesus in vain. There are testimonies also of prayers answered by all the saints of the Church. Many Christians can tell stories of how they called to God and God heard their prayer. God, however is not an automaton. We must leave it up to him how he will answer our petitions.
