The Word This Week

Both first reading and Gospel today invite us to be “down to earth” about the Law of God. It’s very easy to become an “expert in religion” - knowing all the right answers, remembering all the right quotes, and so on. But for Moses and for Jesus, if God’s Law is to be kept anywhere, it must be in our hearts and in our everyday lives. We are not to be concerned with keeping our eyes fixed on heaven, if it means that we cannot see the poor man at our feet.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Responsorial Psalm: Seek the Lord, you who are poor, and your hearts will revive.

Second Reading: Colossians 1: 15-20

Gospel: Luke 10: 25-37

TEA, COFFEE, BISCUITS and a CHAT in St Anne’s room after 9.30am Mass today and every Sunday

PARISH DAY OF REFLECTION

Saturday, 16th November
2013 at Llantarnam Abbey
10am-3pm

22. How does one go about believing?

Someone who believes is seeking a personal union with God and is ready to believe God in everything that he shows (reveals) about himself (150-152)

At the beginning of faith, there is often an emotional disturbance or uneasiness. The person senses that the visible world and the normal course of things cannot be all there is. He feels touched by a mystery and follows the traces that point to the existence of God and gradually finds confidence to speak to God and unite himself to him in freedom. In John's Gospel it says, "No one has ever seen God; the only-begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known" (Jn 1:18). That is why we must believe Jesus, the Son of God, if we want to know what God would like to communicate to us. Believing, therefore, means accepting Jesus and staking one's whole life on him.

Psalm to the Divine Master

The Lord is my Master,
He teaches me the art of loving.
Most patient, He understands the inner movements of my soul.
The Lord lights up my darkness.
Through all creation He teaches me-
I will sit forever at His feet.
He speaks softly within me,
leading me by my own heart.
Though I can't see the path,
His eyes never lose sight of me.
Turning to Him I am safe,
wrapped in the blanket of His love.
He calls me to follow Him more closely,
clasping His nail-pierced hand.
My Master died and rose for me,
loving me into life.
He transforms every sadness.
His ever-present kindness and mercy
make each day shine anew.
I sing out my joy in Him
and proclaim His abundant goodness-
He fills up my life.
Lord, I have found my place in your Heart
