Easter Sunday

Christ, our passover,
has been sacrificed;
let us celebrate the feast then,
in the Lord

When the Word is proclaimed, it is real and active – the Lord is present, and what is described is, in a sense, happening now. On certain days this is made more obvious by the selection of scripture that refers to a particular time or day. Such a selection occurs this morning, when we go with Mary Magdalene to visit the tomb, only to make – with her – a momentous discovery: the tomb is empty, he is risen Alleluia Alleluia

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 10:34-43

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Responsorial Psalm: This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

Gospel Reading: John 20:1-9
