Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord.

Psalter Week 1

"Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord."

When the Word is proclaimed, it is real and active – the Lord is present, and what is described is, in a sense, happening now. On certain days this is made more obvious by the selection of scripture that refers to a particular time or day. Such a selection occurs this morning, when we go with Mary Magdalene to visit the tomb, only to make – with her – a momentous discovery: the tomb is empty, he is risen!

PSALM

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. Let the sons of Israel say: "His love has no end." The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. the stone which the builder rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

First Reading: Acts 10:34, 37-43

Second Reading: Col 3: 1-4

Gospel Reading John 20: 1-9

Second Sunday of Easter (C)

Psalter Week 2

"Eight days later, Jesus came."

This week the Gospel is chosen because it relates "what happened today" – eight days after Easter, Jesus comes again to his disciples. The story of Thomas's doubt and faith leads us to think about our doubts and faith but always in the context of being part of the family of the Church. Remember last week, and the baptisms you may have witnessed, or the renewal of your own baptismal promises: "this is the faith of the Church, the faith in which we are baptised."

PSALM

Let the sons of Israel say: "His love has no end." Let the sons of Aaron say: "His love has no end." Let those who fear the Lord say: "His love has no end. The stone which the builder rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord a marvel in our eyes. This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad. O Lord, grant us salvation; O Lord, grant success. Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes. We bless you from the house of the Lord; the Lord God is our light.

Divine Mercy Sunday, 3rd April

KEEPING THE HOUR OF MERCY AT OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS CHURCH

In keeping with the theme of Mercy, the parishioners will be completing the Novena to the Divine Mercy at 2pm on Sunday April 3rd (Divine Mercy Sunday). Everyone is invited to come and experience the rich grace Jesus promised to St Faustina: "I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over its enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I myself will defend it as My own glory". (Diary 48) The Divine Mercy Novena begins on Good Friday and concludes on Divine Mercy Sunday. Join us at Our Lady's for the promise of great graces.
