problem.'

"Trinity – the state of being threefold: God is only one, but he exists in three persons. The fact that in English we have two terms, the Triune God and the Trinity for the same reality (one empathises God's unity, the other the distinction of persons in him) is an indication of the unfathomable mystery of the Trinity

Day for Life

The Catholic bishops of England and Wales, Ireland and Scotland have agreed that the theme for Day for Life 2019 will tackle the shocking reality of domestic abuse.

One in four women and about one in six men suffer from domestic abuse in their lifetime. Two women are killed every week in England by a partner or ex-partner.

Bishop John Sherrington, the bishop responsible for Day for Life in England and Wales, said:

'These shocking statistics call us to fight against the scourge of domestic abuse. For those who are experiencing domestic abuse, the home is far from being a place of security and selffulfilment. Too often it is a place of suffering, fear, degradation and isolation. Domestic abuse is often a hidden problem, and our aim is for anyone experiencing domestic abuse to feel able to have confidence to seek help within the Church setting. We want to raise awareness in our churches which would be a step towards addressing this serious moral and social

The Secretariat of State of His Holiness Pope Francis sent the following message of support:

'His Holiness Pope Francis sends his cordial best wishes to all those celebrating the 2019 Day for Life being held in England and Wales, Scotland and Ireland.

The proceeds of the Day for Life collection held in parishes will be used for the promotion of the dignity of the human person through the distribution of grants. This will help to develop networks and work with others to support projects against domestic violence, since Jesus tells us, "I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." (John 10: 10 ESV).
