A boy's struggle to stay in school

I want to tell you about an inspirational boy in Uganda. 14-year-old Fabiano is clever and kind and dreams of becoming a doctor.

Every morning, he wakes before sunrise and walks three miles in the dark to collect water for his mum. He gets home, eats a meagre breakfast, and goes straight to school. Although he's often tired and hungry, Fabiano studies hard. He's determined to get a good education and make his mum proud. Like many children, Fabiano is frightened of the dark. Sadly, his fears of something bad happening in the shadows are all too real. Early one morning, as Fabiano was carrying water home, a stranger emerged from the darkness and asked for a drink. Eager to help, Fabiano handed over his full water container. The man took a sip, then poured Fabiano's water away and attacked him. Fabiano was terrified. He abandoned the water can and ran in fear of his life.

He made it home to his mum who held him tight and thanked God he was alive. I'm happy to tell you those long dark walks are now over for Fabiano. Thanks to Family Fast Day donations like yours, a solar powered water pump has been installed in his village. Today, it takes Fabiano just four minutes to collect water. Which means he has more time and energy for school – and having fun with friends. "We knew life would change when we had water near our homes," says Fabiano with a smile. We were there for Fabiano, but unfortunately CAFOD cannot fund one in three requests we get for help. So how can we reach those children still risking their safety - and education - to get water? This Family Fast Day, would you have a simple meal, like a bowl of soup, and give the money you save to CAFOD? Imagine the difference this parish could make if we all got involved. It could mean another water pump in another desperately dry and inaccessible community. It could mean more children, like Fabiano, can follow their dreams. Please fill in your details on the envelope to Gift Aid your donation or you can donate on the CAFOD website. Thank you very much for your prayers and your generosity
