"He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another"

'Shepherd-King o'er mountain steep, homeward guide thy wand'ring sheep.' This hymn which we will probably sing today captures the readings perfectly: our King is not a cruel tyrant or despot, but a shepherd who loves his flock, who would (and did) give his life for them. Love for the flock means that he will have to judge them, separating the sheep from those who do not belong to him. Coming to the end of the Church's year leads us to look to our final ending, the homecoming the hymn speaks of. The judgement of the end of time we do not view as a trial or a terror, but as a coming home: look back to the Isaiah reading on the 28th Sunday to see what a homecoming party is offered. All we do is put our lives in order, living just and holy lives, longing for the day of the lord to come.

Wednesday 25th November – Mass of Memories

Canon John will be celebrating a Mass of Memories on Wednesday 25th November at 7pm and we remember especially at this Mass our parishioners and friends who have died during the past year; 1st October 2019-30th September 2020.

Unfortunately, due to the pandemic we are unable to invite parishioners and friends to the Church for the Mass this year but it will be live streamed on the following link:

<http://www.ourladyoftheangels.org.uk/our-lady-live-stream/>

If you are a parishioner who has suffered from a bereavement in the past 12 months and the deceased lives outside of the parish, please give their names to the parish office cwmbran@rcadc.org or 01633 482346 ASAP for them to be included in the Mass.

Requiescant in Pace

Of your charity please pray for the repose of the souls of Richard Bartel, Fr Ambrose Walsh and Fr Michael Ronan who died recently and we extend our condolences to their families.

Parish Sick

We pray for the sick and housebound of our parish and for those who care for them and for those who have asked for our prayers, especially Sr Denise, Brenda Bold, Margaret Kane, Fr Kevin, Canon Issacs, Bob French, Jennifer Woods, Amelia Smith, Wendy Flemming, Edwina Spender, Keith Shepherd and Malcolm Williams.

November Dead List

Please place your list and offering in an envelope and mark it "Holy Souls" and either post it through Canon John's letter box or you can place them in the basket in front of the altar.
