GOD WHO SPEAKS

CHASING THE WIND: The Bible, philosophy and the Problem of Evil on Zoom with Dr. Gregory Stacey. Does the extent and variety of evil make belief in God irrational? Can the Christian story help us to make sense of suffering?

A series of Five Talks will introduce accessible answers to these and other questions, in dialogue with Biblical texts. Mondays from 14th June online - 7-8pm. godwhospeaks.uk/chasing-the-wind

CYCLE OF PRAYER FOR THE PARISHES OF THE ARCHDIOCESE: 12th SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Today we are asked to pray for Rev Edmund Neizer and parishioners of Saint Robert of Newminster, Aberkenfig. Also Glanrhyd Hospital, Maesgwyn Hospital and Saint Robert's Primary School.

'The Church has always venerated the divine Scriptures as she has venerated the Lord's body, in that she never ceases, above all, in the sacred liturgy, to partake of the bread of life and to offer it to the faithful from the one table of the word of God and the body of Christ.' (Dei Verbum, 21)

Scripture and Wellbeing

For the month of June, the focus of the God Who Speaks Team is on Scripture and Wellbeing. Their new six-part Scripture and Art series – Soul to Soul invites you to walk with them, alongside some biblical characters. They explore the link between faith and meaning, suffering and the 'dark night of the soul', and what salvation might mean in the here and now. Using the rhythm of the day, this resource offers hope and wisdom in tough times today -

"Who can this be? Even the wind and sea obey him!"

There is a strangely simple theme to this Sunday: that God has power over the forces of nature, because he created them in the first place. This is what the first reading tells us, and also what the gospel shows us, when Jesus "rebukes the wind". This tells us something about Jesus (that he is God made man), and also something about our faith. It's also interesting that the disciples react to this miracle with fear and awe - as if their minds were suddenly opened to a reality they had not realised before. They had chosen to follow the Christ who had called them, but we see their understanding of who he is growing and developing. Perhaps this is of comfort to us, as we see our relationship with the Lord who controls the waters grow and develop, and alerts us to be ready for the surprises that following the Lord can bring.
